Thad K. Driskell is in his seventh year as Co-Director of Bands at Thomas Jefferson High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and seventeenth year teaching in the public schools of Iowa and the Chicago suburbs. His primary responsibilities at Jefferson include conducting the Wind Symphony, directing The Band of Blue Marching Band, assisting with the Ninth Grade Concert Band, and private instruction of woodwind, brass, and percussion lessons.

Mr. Driskell earned a Master of Music in Music Education Degree from Northwestern University, and a Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Wartburg College. He has pursued further education through private study of wind conducting at the University of Iowa under Dr. Myron Welch.

Under Mr. Driskell's direction, the Jefferson High School Wind Symphony performed at the 2004 Iowa Bandmasters Association Conference, shared a joint concert with The University of Iowa Symphony Band at Hancher Auditorium in Iowa City, and has earned consecutive division I superior ratings at the State Large Group Festival. The Jefferson High School Band of Blue has appeared in the 2004 Pan-Pacific Parade in Honolulu, Hawaii, the 2005 Citrus Parade in Orlando, Florida, returned to O'ahu, Hawaii in 2008, and earned consecutive division I superior ratings at the State Marching Band Festival and numerous awards in competition.
