ABOUT THE ARTIST

Margaryta Golovko has captured classical music audiences around the world as one of the most intriguing, versatile and unique artists of her generation. She has performed as a soloist as well as a collaborative pianist in prestigious concert halls in Ukraine, France, Germany, Czech Republic, Russia, Romania and United States. Margaryta has appeared with the Kyiv State Symphony Orchestra, the Bacau Philharmonic Orchestra, Plzen Philharmonic, Waterloo Cedar Falls Symphony and many others. In June of 2014 Margaryta Golovko became the first prize winner of the Midwest International Competition in the USA. She has also won top prizes in Smetana International Piano Competition in Czech Republic, Citta di Marsala and Citta di Acquaviva delle Fonti International Piano Competitions in Italy.

Native of Ukraine Margaryta started her piano studies at the age of five. In 1997 she entered the Kiev Special Music School named after M.V. Lysenko, and continued her studies from 2004 – 2009 at the National Music Academy of Ukraine P. I. Tchaikovsky (NMAU) where she was a student of Boris Fedorov. She has also studied at the International Piano Academy "Incontri col Maestri" in Imola, Italy where she studied with Piero Rattalino.
