About the Artists

Jerry A. Young has been a member of the music faculty at University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire since 1983 and will retire from that position in May of 2016. His former students enjoy successful careers as music educators, in music industry and in leading orchestras and military bands in the U.S., Europe and Asia. In addition to his work in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts, he is a long-time member of the faculty of the University Honors Program. He currently serves as Immediate Past-President of the International Tuba – Euphonium Association, formerly served as editor-in-chief of the Association’s quarterly journal, and was among the initial recipients of the Clifford Bevan Award for Life-long Meritorious Work in Low Brass Scholarship. He is a Distinguished Alumnus of the University of Arkansas Department of Music and is a Fellow of the Fulbright Academy of the University of Arkansas. Dr. Young has appeared across the U.S., Europe and Japan as a soloist, chamber musician, clinician, and adjudicator.

Pianist Barbara Young’s American credits include numerous world premieres of chamber works; recitals with members of the New York Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony, and other leading orchestras; solo and collaborative performances at the Interlochen Arts Camp as a member of both the faculty and accompanying staff; live radio broadcasts, and performances throughout the Midwest and South. Her recital and conference performances in Canada, France, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Finland, and Austria have taken place in a variety of venues, including traditional concert halls, a palace, a music store, a furniture store, and a Baroque church. Dr. Young has accompanied faculty members from prestigious universities and conservatories such as Indiana University and London’s Royal Academy of Music. Throughout her career, she has operated private piano studios, served as an adjudicator, given master classes, and made presentations to music teachers and community groups. Dr. Young currently teaches at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, where she frequently presents collaborative performances with faculty colleagues and visiting artists. Her solo CD Music for Heart’s-ease continues to be distributed to individuals and community groups.
