About the Artist

Kellie Connolly is a fifth-year student at the University of Northern Iowa. She is pursuing a bachelor’s degree in General Studies in Music and a Bachelor’s degree in Psychology. Along with a minor in mental health. Kellie started out her college career at Loras College in Dubuque Iowa where she studied with Dr. Paul Price-Brenner. Her junior year, she transferred to UNI, where she has been studying with Dr. Steve Koh. Kellie was a member of the Clinton Symphony for two years before her time at UNI. Now Kellie is a member of the Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra and has participated in a chamber ensemble. She is also an active member in the music fraternity Sigma Alpha Iota where she holds the position of Treasurer. She also holds a leadership position in Psychology Club and is a member of the honors Psychology Society Psi Chi. Outside of music Kellie enjoys playing Mario Kart and hanging out with family and friends.

After not being able to play violin for over eight months due to a shoulder injury, Kellie is so glad to be performing again and is excited to show everyone that she is back! Kellie would like to give a thank you to everyone who is here or watching virtually to support her, including the apartment hamster, Soup. She hopes you will be Bach for her next recital, not Haydn somewhere else.
