All-State auditions are just around the corner! This year, auditions will be held entirely online, so our workshops are moving online to help you prepare for that experience and to keep all participants safe. Don’t miss this opportunity to attend FREE virtual instrumental workshops offered by UNI School of Music faculty.

Covering the materials required for the respective All-State audition areas, these clinics focus on practice techniques for chromatic and major scales, solos, correct rhythm, proper tempo, technique and style. Fundamentals for improving tone quality, breath control and technique are also covered. Online participants should be prepared to work on All-State scales, solos and etudes as listed below.

Registration is required. Please visit: https://music.uni.edu/allstateworkshopregistration

Registration deadline is Friday, Sept. 25 at 12 noon. All participants registered at that time will receive an email with a link to their live, online clinic. Emails will be sent by the end of the day on Saturday, Sept. 26. Clinics will be held on Sunday, Sept. 27 at various start times. See the information below to find the start time for your instrument.
