

at a glance

The School of Music (SOM) is within the College of Humanities, Arts & Sciences.

A LEADER IN MUSIC EDUCATION,

SOM provides more K-12 music teachers to the state of Iowa than any other institution.

DEGREES OFFERED:

Bachelor of Arts

General Music Studies
Performing Arts Management
Music History
Music Technology

Bachelor of Music

Music Education
(Choral, Instrumental and Jazz)
Composition
Music Performance

Masters of Arts/Music

Specializations in:

Composition
Conducting
Jazz Pedagogy
Music Education
Music History
Music Performance

PLUS music minors and a music technology emphasis within the Interactive Digital Studies (IDS) degree housed in the Communication Studies department.

$400,000

IN SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS AWARDED ANNUALLY

The SOM houses two centers, the UNI Suzuki School and the UNI Community Music School which serve approximately 1,000 community members annually. They offer music lessons and large group ensembles and are central to the School of Music's commitment to offer a lifelong approach to music instruction and performance opportunities to the community. Opportunities exist for music students to teach in these programs.

THE SOM HAS APPROXIMATELY

300

CURRENT MUSIC MAJORS

and a larger number of non-majors and minors also take part in classes and ensembles.

5 Performance Venues

GREAT HALL / 1600 seats

DAVIS HALL / 275 seats

JEBE HALL / 150 seats

BENGTSON AUDITORIUM / 400 seats

GRAHAM RECITAL HALL / 75 seats

Department Assets

- Live streaming with HD video/audio of most SOM concerts in Great Hall, Davis Hall and Bengtson Auditorium
- Schultz Recording Studio, a state-of-the-art recording facility capable of producing top quality professional recordings
- Music computer lab complete with specialized music software, audio mixers, headphone amps and keyboard controllers at every station
- Eight dedicated classrooms with computer, audio and video technology, one of which is a technology enhanced music education classroom
- Dedicated Piano Pedagogy Lab
- Chamber music rehearsal room
- Over 50 practice rooms distributed through both buildings, complete with pianos and music stands; includes three technology-enhanced Wenger practice rooms capable of acoustic reinforcement as well as audio recording
- Four dedicated percussion practice rooms
- An inventory of over 130 pianos in offices, classrooms, practice rooms and concert venues
- Two student lounges with seating, vending machines, microwaves and refrigerators
- WIFI coverage throughout campus

Student Employment Opportunities

- audio recording technicians
- stage hands
- music theory peer educators
- music librarians
- office assistants
- music ambassadors

Ensembles

Cantorei	Jazz Combos (4-10)	Symphonic Band
Cecilians	Northern Iowa	UNI Opera
Concert Band	Symphony Orchestra	UNI Singers
Concert Chorale	Panther Marching Band (300+ members)	Varsity Glee Club
Jazz Bands (3)		Wind Ensemble

Small ensembles:

Bass Ensemble, Clarinet Choir, Flute Choir, Horn Choir, Percussion Ensemble, Saxophone quartets, Taiko Drum Ensemble, Trombone Choir, Tuba and Euphonium Ensemble, West African Drum Ensemble, New Music Ensemble, Laptop Ensemble, and more!

Start your musical journey at UNI School of Music!

Scan this code to be introduced to a current student and get all your questions answered.