About the Artists

McKinley Boyd

McKinley is a senior studying clarinet with Dr. Amanda McCandless and will be graduating this spring with a bachelor's degree in Music History. McKinley has been involved in multiple ensembles during his time at UNI performing in the UNI Symphonic band, UNI Wind Ensemble, Panther Marching Band, Basketball Pep Band, and the UNI Clarinet Choir. This spring he was fortunate enough to be able to travel on tour with the UNI Wind Ensemble to Scotland to give performances abroad as well as collaborate with Scottish musicians. Following graduation McKinley plans to work in a library in the Des Moines area and eventually pursue a masters degree in Library Sciences. In his free time McKinley enjoys playing video games, reading, spending time with friends, and playing dungeons and dragons.

Madeline Christof

Maddy is a 5th year senior at the School of Music, graduating this spring with her Bachelor's in Music Technology and has also earned a certificate in Entrepreneurship. She was a transfer student from Kirkwood Community College and began to study under Dr. Amanda McCandless in Fall 2023. During Maddy's time at UNI, she has played with the UNI Symphonic Band, interned at Catamount Recording with Travis Huisman, collaborated with Sandy Nordahl and Chris Shortway to record/mix/master a live performance, and more. Maddy plans to move to Iowa City this summer to pursue a career in music. In her free time, Maddy likes to be outside fishing or walking, going to secondhand stores, playing board/card games, seeing her friends, or working on her craft of music production.
