Texts and Translations

Ritual

Composer: Jake Runestad

Text: Created language for colorful timbral effects.

Stars

Composer: Ēriks Ešenvalds

Text: Sara Teasdale
Alone in the night
On a dark hill
With pines around me
Spicy and still,

And a heaven full of stars Over my head, White and topaz And misty red;

Myriads with beating Hearts of fire That aeons Cannot vex or tire;

Up the dome of heaven
Like a great hill,
I watch them marching
Stately and still,
And I know that I
Am honored to be
Witness
Of so much majesty.

Lightly Stepped a Yellow Star

Composer: Dan Forrest

Text: Emily Dickinson

Lightly stepped a yellow star

To its lofty place -

Loosed the Moon her silver hat

From her lustral Face -

All of Evening softly lit

As an Astral Hall -

Father, I observed to Heaven,

You are punctual.

llus Hääl

Composer: Margrit Kits, arr. Laura Jēkabsone

Text: Margrit Kits

Performed in Estonian, English Translation:

Ring out, generous forests

Shout back the huts

In return for my graceful voice

In return for my wonderful song

Where my voice is heard

Where my song is sung

There all forests will fall

Even without striking iron.

Muusika

Composer: Pärt Uusberg

Text: Juhan Liiv

Performed in Estonian, English Translation:

Somewhere the original harmony must exist,

Hidden somewhere in the vast wilds.

In Earth's mighty firmament,

in the far reaches of swirling galaxies,

in sunshine,

in a little flower, in the song of a forest,

in the music of a mother's voice,

or in teardrops -

somewhere, immortality endures, and the original harmony will be found. How else could it have formed in human hearts music?

A Silence Haunts Me

Composer: Jake Runestad

Text: Todd Boss

Hear me, brothers —

I've a confession painful to make.
Six years I have endured a curse that deepens every day. They say that soon I'll cease to hear the very music of my soul. What should be the sense most perfect in me fails me, shames me, taunts me.
A silence haunts me.

They ask me —

Do you hear the shepherd singing far-off soft? — Do you hear a distant fluting dancing joyously aloft? — No. — I think so? — No. — I think so? — No. — I

God, am I Prometheus? — exiled in chains for gifting humankind my fire? Take my feeling — take my sight — take my wings midflight but let me hear the searing roar of air before I score the ground!

Why? — Silence is God's reply — and so I beg me take my life when Io — I hear a grace and feel a ringing in me after all — so now as leaves of autumn fall, I make my mark and sign my name and turn again to touch my flame of music to the world, a broken man, as best I can,

As ever,

Yours faithfully, (— A bell?)

Hear me,

and be well.

Welcome Cecilians

Composer: Jordan Elis Wholen

Text: Jordan Elis Wholen

Welcome Cecilians,

We greet thee in song.

Come raise your voices, our praises prolong With hearts that are full and strong

Through storm and calm, we'll stand as one Our journey just begun.

Oh sing, Cecilians together! Our journey's just begun!

Sing, then, Cecilians

With hearts burning bright.

Lift up your voices in unity's light And strengthen each soul to take flight.

Through storm and calm, we'll stand as one Our journey just begun.

Oh sing, Cecilians together!

Our journey's just begun!

Canzone rò curtiell'

Composer: Emmanuelle Ader

Text: Lilia Ruocco, Emmanuelle Ader

Performed in Neapolitan, English Translation

Your mouth is as big as the Vesuvius crater and when you speak, it stinks, we can smell it all the way to Orvieto. And shut that sewer mouth so I can rest tonight. Say those same words to your mother and see what happens to you! You follow me all the time with your boiled fish face. I always find you there with your codfish face. Oh man, listen to me. If you don't stop, I'm gonna kick your ass!

When I go for a walk with my friends I always find you there with your big mouth. I told you to get out of my way. If you show off with me I sing you this song like a slap in your face.

Song or Knife, choose!

Hey! Pig's face! when you come out of the dark with your dripping mouth I want to teach you a lesson. You're a cesspool. Your words are dirty in front of you. I become a storm — you'll see — you'll laugh! You're disgusting when you look at me when I walk in the street. If you're a pig with me, I become a black cat. Hey man! Listen to me! If you don't stop, I'm gonna kick your ass!

This beautiful song that cuts like a knife every night in your sleep, she comes to find you. If I become a witch it's because you deserve it. Every day you piss me off, this anger you've awakened. Day and night I'm always on my guard and nobody cares. Everybody for himself. What if I was your sister? You think: Long skirt, I'm the Virgin Mary. Short skirt, I'm a whore. Listen, what you think, I don't give a damn!

A Song of Life

Composer: Marques L. A. Garrett

Text: Ella Wheeler Wilcox

In the rapture of life and of living,
I lift up my head and rejoice,
And I thank the great Giver for giving
The soul of my gladness a voice.
In the glow of the glorious weather,
In the sweet-scented, sensuous air,
My burdens seem light as a feather –
They are nothing to bear.

In the strength and the glory of power,
In the pride and the pleasure of wealth
I can laugh at the world and its sages —
I am greater than seers who are sad,
For he is most wise in all ages
Who knows how to be glad.

I lift up my eyes to the beautiful days, And my spirit soars off like a swallow, And is lost in the light of its rays. Are you troubled and sad? I beseech you Come out of the shadows of strife — Come out in the sun while I teach you The secret of life.

Come out of the world – come above it – Up over its crosses and graves,
Come up where the dust never rises –
But only the perfume of flowers – and your life shall be glad with surprises, happy and full of delight.

Will the Circle Be Unbroken

Composer: J. David Moore, arr.

Text: Betsy Rose, Cathy Winter, and Marcia Taylor

Will the circle be unbroken by and by, Lord, by and by. There's a better home awaitin' if we try, Lord, if we try.

I was singing with my sisters, I was singing with my friends. And we all can sing together, 'cause the circle never ends.

I was born down in the valley where the sun refused to shine. But I'm climing up to the highland, gonna make that mountain mine!

Радуйтеся, праведнії

Music: Maxim Berezovksy

Text: Psalm 33:1

Sung in Church Slavonic, English Translation:

Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous.

Double, Double Toil and Trouble

Music: Jaako Mäntyjärvi

Text: William Shakespeare

Four lines have been altered by Concert Chorale, with the aid of AI, to remove racist language. Alternations are shown in bold.

Thrice the brinded cat hath mew'd.

Thrice and once, the hedge-pig whin'd.

Harpier cries:—'tis time! 'tis time!

Round about the caldron go;

In the poison'd entrails throw.—

Toad, that under cold stone,

Days and nights has thirty-one;

Swelter'd venom sleeping got,

Boil thou first i' the charmed pot! Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and caldron bubble. Fillet of a fenny snake, In the caldron boil and bake: Eye of newt, and toe of frog, Wool of bat, and tongue of dog, Adder's fork, and blind-worm's sting, Lizard's leg, and owlet's wing,— For a charm of powerful trouble, Like a hell-broth boil and bubble. Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and caldron bubble. Scale of dragon; tooth of wolf; Witches' mummy; maw and gulf Of the ravin'd salt-sea shark; Root of hemlock digg'd i the dark; Liver torn from butchered swine; Gall of wolf, and twisted spine Broken on the rack of doom: Clotted blood and marrow's fume; Finger of the lost at sea, Claimed by storm in misery,— Ditch-deliver'd by a drab,— Make the gruel thick and slab: Add thereto a tiger's chaudron, For the ingrediants of our caldron. Double, double toil and trouble: Fire burn, and caldron bubble.

Listen to the Lambs

Composer: R. Nathaniel Dett

Text: Spiritual; Isaiah 40:11

Listen to the Lambs! All a-crying! He shall feed his flock like a shepherd And carry the young lambs in his bosom.

I'm Gonna Sing 'Til the Spirit Moves in my Heart

Composer: Moses Hogan

Text: Moses Hogan

I'm gonna sing 'til the spirit moves in my heart.

I'm gonna sing 'til Jesus comes.

It was grace that bought me

It was grace that taught me

It was grace that kept me

And it's grace that will lead me home.

I'm gonna pray 'til the spirit moves in my heart.

I'm gonna pray 'til Jesus comes.

Can't you feel the Spirit movin'?

About the Artists

The UNI Concert Chorale is the largest mixed choral ensembleatthe University of Northern lowa and is comprised of undergraduate and graduate music students selected by competitive audition from all academic disciplines. Recent major performances include Considering Matthew Shepard, by Craig Hella Johnson, David Lang's The Little Matchgirl Passion, requiems by Brahms, Duruflé and Mozart, and Beethoven's 9th Symphony. Concert Chorale has toured extensively both regionally and internationally and can be heard on the CENTAUR and MARK Record Labels on all major streaming services. Concert Chorale will perform Margaret Bonds' Credo on November 18, in the Great Hall at 7:30pm.

CANTOREI is a small ensemble that focuses on developing choral artistry and musical fluency through a wide variety of chamber music. Repertoire is selected from a broad range of choral literature, including both sacred and secular music, spanning from the Renaissance through contemporary periods of music history.

The University of Northern Iowa CECILIANS (formerly the Women's Chorus) is a premiere ensemble dedicated to artistry, friendship and preserving its heritage as the oldest ensemble on campus. The ensemble builds upon its rich tradition through innovative programming and forward thinking commissions, drawing members from across academic disciplines. Cecilians creates an inclusive community of strong, proud treble singers through song while embracing their 130 year heritage. Cecilians was founded as the Cecilian Glee Club in 1888 by Julia Curtiss, and was the start of the choral program at UNI. An unauditioned ensemble, the Cecilians have performed across the globe and will perform in Ireland this coming Spring Break. The Cecilians favorite new tradition is Tea Time, when the student leadership makes tea for the entire ensemble during Wednesday rehearsals.

The UNI Varsity Glee Club, established in 1888 by brothers Charles and Robert Fullerton, has a rich history marked by resilience and excellence. Initially known as the lowa State Normal School Glee Club, the ensemble performed throughout lowa for the first thirty years of its existence. Activities were suspended during both World Wars but revived in 1960 by Dr. Les Hale. The Glee Club has toured extensively, and in 2026 the group will embark on its 23rd international tour and serve as the Choir in Residence for the Feast of St. Rita in Santiago de Compostela, which draws more than 14,000 people. The Glee Club has produced dozens of recordings, appears on the CENTAUR and MARK Record Labels, and can be heard on all major streaming services. If you visit the local pizza joint by campus after rehearsals, you'll hear the legacy of Charles and Robert Fullerton come to life, as the guys lift their glasses and sing Brothers, Sing On!

Coming from Northwest Iowa, Alan Beving is in his second year of study at the University of Northern Iowa as a graduate student in Choral Conducting. Prior to matriculating to UNI, he was the Director of Choral Activities at Southeast Valley High School in Gowrie, IA, where he taught 9th-12th grade choir, music theory, and piano class. Along with his teaching responsibilities, Alan also coached a jazz choir as well as directed multiple stage productions including Mary Poppins, Little Shop of Horrors, and They Promised Her the Moon. When not studying or working with UNI choirs, Alan spends his time experimenting with his cooking skills or losing a match in his favorite video games.

Sara Blessing is Assistant Professor of Instruction in Choral Music Education. Prior to her appointment at UNI, she was Director of Choral Activities at Graceland University in Lamoni, IA. Sara has conducted a variety of regional honor choirs and has been a guest clinician at several schools around the Midwest. In 2016, she was the recipient of Graceland University's Alumni Award for Excellence in Teaching, for which she was nominated by her students. In April of 2016, her choirs performed the world premiere of "You Guided Me" after commissioning the work from composer Michael John Trotta. Throughout her studies, Sara has had the privilege to work with many choral mentors including René Clausen, Morten Lauridsen, Ola Gjeilo, John Rutter, Jo-Michael Scheibe, Rollo Dilworth, Eric Whitacre, James Mulholland, Michael John Trotta, Timothy Stalter, David Puderbaugh, and Tim and Sandra Peter. She states: "The passion, diligence, artistry, and scholarly work of these individuals has been an inspiration to my work as a choral conductor." Sara earned her B.A. in K-12 Music Education and Vocal Performance from Luther College, M.M. degree in Choral Conducting and Pedagogy from Oklahoma State University, and her DMA in Choral Conducting and Pedagogy from the University of Iowa. She is a member of the American Choral Directors Association, the Iowa Choral Directors Association, the National Association for Music Education, and the College Music Society.

Sara lives in Cedar Falls with her three children Aspen, Ada, and Edith.

ents' family farm along with three brothers, and his family has always supported his music endeavors. Bryon's passion for music began when his mother started teaching him piano when he was three years old. He has been involved in music ever since, and Bryson is thrilled to serve as the Glee Club accompanist this year! Some of his other hobbies include spending time with friends, playing sports, and watching movies, especially The Lord of the Rings.

UNI Professor of Music, John Wiles, grew up in the Arizona desert. He began taking piano lessons from his mother at a young age, but always dreamed of playing professional basketball for the Phoenix Suns. When it became clear that basketball was not a viable employment option, he moved to Texas to study music in college. Throughout his education, John studied under patient and wise teachers. He and his wife, Amy, met as freshman in college and John has spent every day since their first date trying to be a loving partner. In 2010 he came to teach at the University of Northern Iowa and is grateful for every moment. (Well, almost every moment.) The university, along with the students, alum, and his colleagues support him in a myriad of professional and personal ways. When not at the university, John likes to spend his time shooting hoops and playing Pokémon with his two children, Ruthie and Tommo, who fill him with boundless joy. Visit https://music. uni.edu/directory/john-wiles if you'd like to read about his professional achievements.
