The University of Northern Iowa honors the ancestral stewards of the land on which our university rests. Through the work we do every day to live our mission, the University of Northern Iowa aspires for you to see a community that: honors Native and Indigenous People and culture, lives the 7th Generation Principle, does good for the people and communities we serve, and embraces stewardship of our mission and land. Please see our full stewardship statement at president.uni.edu/stewardship-statement.

Performances like this are made possible through private support from patrons like you! Please consider contributing to School of Music scholarships or guest artist programs. Call 319-273-3915 or visit www.uni.edu/music to make your gift.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Abby Gaul is a saxophonist and educator based in Cedar Falls, Iowa. She has performed throughout the United States and internationally, with appearances in Japan and Scotland. As a concerto soloist, she has been featured with the Wartburg Community Symphony and the Wartburg College Wind Ensemble. She has also performed at the United States Navy Band International Saxophone Symposium and the North American Saxophone Alliance Region 3 Conference.

Abby is a graduate assistant at the University of Northern Iowa, where she teaches saxophone, music theory, and concert band. In addition, she teaches saxophone and clarinet at Waterloo West High School and maintains a private studio in the community.

Abby is currently pursuing a Master of Music in saxophone performance at the University of Northern Iowa under the mentorship of Dr. Ann Bradfield. She holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Wartburg College, where she studied with Dr. Christopher Anderson. An Iowa native, Abby is committed to maintaining an active career as both an educator and performer in the Midwest.
