ABOUT THE ARTIST

Hannah Elerding will be graduating with a Bachelor's of Music in Instrumental Music Education after studying under Dr. Ann Bradfield. During her time at UNI, she has been involved in the UNI Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Concert Band, Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra, Panther Marching Band, and various chamber ensembles.

Her favorite memories include attending the Navy Saxophone Symposium in Washington D.C., traveling to and performing in Northern Italy with NISO, and participating in any quartet rehearsal or large ensemble performance.

When Hannah was not playing the saxophone, she was working as a Desk Assistant for UNI Housing & Dining, a private lesson instructor for UNI Aquatics, and a Peer Educator for the School of Music. She spent her free time going for walks, drinking coffee, and cherishing the time she had with her sister and her very best friends.
