ABOUT THE CONDUCTOR

Michelle Swanson is Assistant Professor of Music Education at the University of Northern Iowa. Dr. Swanson teaches Elementary General Music Methods, Choral Methods, Introduction to Music Education, Soundscapes, and also supervises field experience students and student teachers. Dr. Swanson is also an academic advisor for students in music education. Swanson has taught at UNI for 25 years. Swanson also enjoys working with music teachers throughout Iowa. She travels to school districts for in-services and consultations regularly. Dr. Swanson also hosts Music Education workshops at UNI four times during each school year.

Swanson received her B.M.E., M.M., and Ed.D degrees from U.N.I. While an undergraduate student at UNI, Swanson studied piano with Howard Aibel. She participated in Wind Symphony, Orchestra, Concert Chorale, Clarinet Choir, and Percussion Ensemble. Swanson was the accompanist for the Varsity Mens' Glee Club from 1989 to 1992, and often accompanied other ensembles and soloists. Dr. Swanson studied Orff Schulwerk at the University of St. Thomas under Jane Frazee, Arveda Steen and Steve Calentropio. Beyond the three levels of certification, Mrs. Swanson completed advanced Orff curriculum, technique, and teaching courses.

Dr. Swanson taught elementary general music for 20 years. She was awarded a Gold Star Teaching Award in 1996. Dr. Swanson founded and conducted the Sturgis Falls Children's Choir from 1993 to 2005, and the UNI Children's Choir from 2004 to 2020. Her choirs have performed at events throughout Iowa and the Midwest extensively. She has also conducted numerous elementary, middle level and high school honor choirs throughout Iowa. Swanson is also an accomplished accompanist. She enjoys playing the piano and singing at Candeo Church as well. Her husband, Chad, is an attorney in Waterloo, and they have two adult children, Elizabeth, and Matthew, and a dog, Larry.
