In consideration of the performers and other members of the audience, please enter or leave a performance at the end of a composition. Cameras and recording equipment are not permitted. Please turn off all electronic devices, and be sure that all emergency contact cell phones and pagers are set to silent or vibrate. In the event of an emergency, please use the exit nearest to you. Please contact the usher staff if you need assistance.

This event is free to all UNI students, courtesy of the Panther Pass Program.

The University of Northern Iowa honors the ancestral stewards of the land on which our university rests. Through the work we do every day to live our mission, the University of Northern Iowa aspires for you to see a community that: honors Native and Indigenous People and culture, lives the 7th Generation Principle, does good for the people and communities we serve, and embraces stewardship of our mission and land. Please see our full stewardship statement at president.uni.edu/stewardship-statement.

Performances like this are made possible through private support from patrons like you! Please consider contributing to School of Music scholarships or guest artist programs. Call 319-273-3915 or visit www.uni.edu/music to make your gift.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Chance Elton is a senior instrumental music education major from Decorah, Iowa. During his time at the University of Northern Iowa, he has studied under the professor of trombone, Dr. Anthony Williams. Chance has been part of many of ensembles at UNI, including the UNI Panther Marching Band, Pep Band, Concert Band, Symphonic Band, and Trombone Choir. He is an active member of the UNI Trombone Society and has served as former vice president, and is currently president.

Upon completing coursework, Chance will be returning home to Decorah to do his student teaching within the Northeast Iowa region.

THANK YOU

I would like to give a big thank you to my trombone professor, Dr. Williams, for everything I have learned from him and helping me develop into the musician I have become.

Thank you to Dr. Morita for collaborating with me one last time, and for all the work she put in for this.

Thank you to my amazing friends and family for the encouragement and support you have given me throughout the years
