GUEST CONDUCTORS

David McKee is in his thirty-second year at Virginia Tech, where he serves as director of The Marching Virginians. A native of Lynchburg, he received his B.M.E. from Shenandoah Conservatory of Music in 1976 and his M.A.Ed. from Virginia Tech in 1986.

Under his direction, The Marching Virginians have performed throughout the nation for football games, parades and other activities, sharing performances with bands from the University of Texas, Florida State University, and most recently with the Oklahoma State University Marching Band at the Camping World Bowl in Orlando, Florida. In addition to a demanding schedule of performances throughout the football season, The Marching Virginians are the model of Ut Prosim serving the university community through twenty-one Hokies for the Hungry canned food drives, two collaborative hurricane relief trips to New Orleans with the YMCA Student Programs at Virginia Tech, and many performances and presentations for public school students in the region. In the spring of 2009, the Marching Virginians partnered with Community Housing Partners to build a home in honor of Ryan "Stack" Clark, a band member and victim of the 2007 campus shooting. Under McKee's guidance, the Marching Virginians Alumni Association has developed into an exceptional source of networking and funding for the Marching Virginians, providing millions of dollars of support for the band. In the fall of 2015, Virginia Tech opened the Marching Virginians Center, a $4.75 million-dollar rehearsal and storage facility for the MVs. In the spring of 2016, the Virginia Tech Board of Visitors renamed the facility as the Sochinski-McKee Marching Virginians Center, in recognition of many years of service by James Sochinski and David McKee.

Jay N. Jacobs is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Bands at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, Louisiana. Joining the McNeese faculty in 2007, he directs the Cowboy Marching Band and Basketball Band, conducts the wind symphony and teaches courses in conducting. Dr. Jacobs holds the Bachelor of Music in Music Education degree from West Virginia University and earned the Masters of Music in Conducting and Doctor of Philosophy in Music Education degrees from the University of Florida.

Dr. Jacobs has served as a clinician and adjudicator in West Virginia, Illinois, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, Louisiana and Texas, and as a presenter at several professional conferences. He has performed in or conducted ensembles internationally and has served as a guest conductor with the Lake Charles Symphony Orchestra. He most recently received the McNeese President's Award for Outstanding Mentorship and was selected as Faculty Member of the Year by the McNeese Student Government Association.

Called one of the most exciting and exhilarating voices in music education today, Peter Loel Boonshaft has been invited to speak or conduct in every state in the nation and around the world. Honored by the National Association for Music Education and Music For All as the first recipient of the "George M. Parks Award for Leadership in Music Education," Dr. Boonshaft has recently been named Director of Education for Jupiter Band Instruments. He is also co-author of Alfred Music Publishing's new beginning method book series, Sound Innovations for Band and Sound Innovations for Strings, as well as Sound Innovations: Ensemble Development for Intermediate Concert Band and Sound Innovations: Ensemble Development for Advanced Concert Band. Currently on the faculty of Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York, where he is Professor of Music and Director of Bands, he has received official proclamations from the Governors of five states and a Certificate of Appreciation from former President Ronald Reagan, as well as performing for former President and Mrs. George H. W. Bush, former President Bill Clinton, and for Margaret Thatcher, former Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. He has been awarded membership in Pi Kappa Lambda and Alpha Chi, as well as twice receiving the University of Hartford Regent's Award and that University's Outstanding Music Educator Award. His honors also include being selected three times as a National Endowment for the Arts "Artist in Residence," three times awarded Honorary Life Membership in the Tri-M Music Honor Society, receiving the Al G. Wright Award from the WBDI, and being selected for the Center for Scholarly Research and Academic Excellence at Hofstra University.
