Jack Jean is currently the Director of Bands at Whitewater High School in Fayetteville, Georgia. Mr. Jean, a native of Des Moines, Iowa, received his Bachelor of Music Education Degree from the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, Iowa in 1989. He was selected by Northwestern University in 1994 as a Summer Fellow, studying conducting with John Paynter, Mallory Thompson, Steve Peterson and Don Owens.

His professional experience includes Director and Associate Director of Bands at Shiloh High School (Snellville, GA), Director of Bands at Dunwoody High School (Dunwoody, GA) and Director of Bands at Saydel High School (Des Moines, IA). In 1991 the Saydel High School Jazz Band 1 was selected to perform at the Iowa Bandmasters Association In-Service Conference. Mr. Jean has also served as the adjunct Percussion Instructor at Drake University (Des Moines, IA), Rehearsal Assistant with the Des Moines Youth Symphony Orchestra and the Atlanta Youth Wind Symphony. He has performed professionally with the Des Moines Symphony Orchestra, Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony Orchestra, Omaha Symphony Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra of Iowa, New Hampshire Summer Music Festival Orchestra, DeKalb Symphony Orchestra, Gainesville Symphony Orchestra, Tara Winds Community Band and the Cobb Wind Symphony. As a member of Tara Winds, Mr. Jean performed at the Midwest Clinic in 1994 and 2001 and again in 2011 with the Cobb Wind Symphony.

During his tenure at Whitewater High School, the Wind Ensemble has had many invitational performances. In 2014, they performed at the University of Georgia January Music Festival as a featured ensemble. The ensemble performed a shared concert in 2013 with the Georgia State University Symphonic Winds at the Rialto Center for the Arts in Atlanta, GA. The Whitewater High School French Horn Choir also performed a Lobby Concert performance at The Georgia Music Educator's Association In-Service Conference in Savannah, GA.

Mr. Jean was named the Whitewater High School "Teacher of the Year" for the 2014-2015 school year. In 2015, he was recognized by the Georgia Music Educator's Association for "Twenty-Five Years of Service to Music Education". In addition, he was also awarded the "Distinguished Wildcat Award", recognizing outstanding service to Whitewater High School in 2013-2014. Mr. Jean has received the National Band Association's "Citation of Excellence" in both 2009 and 2014, and the "Excellence in Education Award" sponsored by the Atlanta Braves and AT&T in 2007. His professional memberships include the National Band Association, National Association for Music Education, Georgia Music Educators Association, Phi Beta Mu and Pi Kappa Lambda.
