About the Artist

Originally from Pella, Lin Nikkel is a fourth-year student majoring in instrumental music education at UNI studying oboe under Dr. Heather Peyton. Throughout her time at UNI, Lin has performed in many ensembles including the UNI Wind Ensemble, Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra, Panther Marching Band, Bach Cantata Ensemble, and several chamber ensembles.

At UNI, Lin currently works as an Aural Training and Sight Singing Peer Educator. She has also been an active substitute in the Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony and the Wartburg Community Orchestra.

Lin plans to complete her student teaching in the Des Moines area in the spring semester. After completing her degree, she plans to travel abroad to pursue her master's degree in conducting.

Lin is so grateful for everyone she has met and been mentored by during her time at UNI. She is also thankful for the support from her family and friends in her education and career.

Please stick around for the reception afterwards!
