About the Artist

Logan Neifert is a senior pursuing a degree in Jazz Studies and Saxophone Performance here at UNI, under the direction of Dr. Ann Bradfield and Professor Chris Merz. During his time at UNI, he has been involved in the UNI Wind Ensemble, Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra, Jazz Band One, Panther Marching Band, saxophone quartet and jazz combo. He has also studied under and collaborated with artists such as Melissa Aldana, Anat Cohen, Dave Camwell, Brian Rodesch, and Marcus Strickland. Logan was additionally a finalist in the 2023 Emerging Artist and Concerto Competitions. This semester, Logan has been involved in the UNI Community Music School, serving as the saxophone instructor for the New Horizons Band. In his free time, he enjoys baking exotic goods and spending quality time with his dogs, Charlie and Seamus. After graduating this spring, Logan will be joining the United States Navy as a saxophonist in their fleet band program.
