In consideration of the performers and other members of the audience, please enter or leave a performance at the end of a composition. Cameras and recording equipment are not permitted. Please turn off all electronic devices, and be sure that all emergency contact cell phones and pagers are set to silent or vibrate. In the event of an emergency, please use the exit nearest to you. Please contact the usher staff if you need assistance.

This event is free to all UNI students, courtesy of the Panther Pass Program.

The University of Northern Iowa honors the ancestral stewards of the land on which our university rests. Through the work we do every day to live our mission, the University of Northern Iowa aspires for you to see a community that: honors Native and Indigenous People and culture, lives the 7th Generation Principle, does good for the people and communities we serve, and embraces stewardship of our mission and land. Please see our full stewardship statement at president.uni.edu/stewardship-statement.

Performances like this are made possible through private support from patrons like you! Please consider contributing to School of Music scholarships or guest artist programs. Call 319-273-3915 or visit www.uni.edu/music to make your gift.

About the Conductor

Nicole Lambrecht is the Director of Lucia Chorum (SSAA ensemble) at Bethel University. She also teaches private voice and music education courses. Outside of Bethel, she is Director of Youth Ensembles for Minnesota Chorale and Artistic Director and Conductor of the Minnesota Center Chorale in St. Cloud, Minnesota. Prior to this, she taught high school choir for eight years and also worked as a therapeutic musician for Knute Nelson Hospice. Nicole has completed all coursework for her Doctorate of Music Education from Liberty University's School of Music; she is currently working on her dissertation. Nicole currently serves as the Central District Chair for ACDA-MN and as the Collegiate-Level Vice President for MMEA. Nicole has presented choirs at MMEA Midwinter Clinic and at several festivals in MN and ND; she has also been a clinician at the ACDA state conference and section leader for MN All-State Choirs. She is active regionally as a guest conductor and adjudicator at music festivals and conferences in the Midwest. As a trained coloratura soprano, Nicole has performed as a soloist with Opera Fort Collins, Central Lakes Symphony Orchestra, Fargo-Moorhead Choral Artists, Chant Claire, and Central Lakes Symphony Chorale.

About the Accompanist / Festival Coordinator

Dr. Michelle Swanson is Assistant Professor of Music Education at the University of Northern Iowa. Dr. Swanson teaches Elementary General Music Methods, Choral Methods, Introduction to Music Education, Soundscapes, and also supervises field experience students and student teachers. Dr. Swanson is also an academic advisor for students in music education. Swanson has taught at UNI for 25 years. Swanson also enjoys working with music teachers throughout Iowa. She travels to school districts for in-services and consultations regularly. Dr. Swanson also hosts Music Education workshops at UNI four times during each school year. Dr. Swanson is looking forward to retiring at the end of this school year.

Swanson received her B.M.E., M.M., and Ed.D degrees from U.N.I. While an undergraduate student at UNI, Swanson studied piano with Howard Aibel. She participated in Wind Symphony, Orchestra, Concert Chorale, Clarinet Choir, and Percussion Ensemble. Swanson was the accompanist for the Varsity Mens' Glee Club from 1989 to 1992, and often accompanied other ensembles and soloists. Dr. Swanson studied Orff Schulwerk at the University of St. Thomas under Jane Frazee, Arveda Steen and Steve Calentropio. Beyond the three levels of certification, Mrs. Swanson completed advanced Orff curriculum, technique, and teaching courses.

Dr. Swanson taught elementary general music for 20 years. She was awarded a Gold Star Teaching Award in 1996. Dr. Swanson founded and conducted the Sturgis Falls Children's Choir from 1993 to 2005, and the UNI Children's Choir from 2004 to 2020. Her choirs have performed at events throughout Iowa and the Midwest extensively. She has also conducted numerous elementary, middle level and high school honor choirs throughout Iowa. Swanson is also an accomplished accompanist. She enjoys playing the piano and singing at Candeo Church as well. Her husband, Chad, is an attorney in Waterloo, and they have two adult children, Elizabeth, and Matthew, and a dog, Larry.
