ABOUT THE ARTIST

Morgan Eadie is a fifth-year trumpet player studying under Dr. Grabowski, and an Instrumental Music Education major at UNI. Morgan began her journey on trumpet through playing in church at the First Presbyterian Church Near Ely, and has now been a member of the UNI Trumpet Studio for five years. She plays principal trumpet in both the UNI Wind Ensemble and the Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra. Morgan has also played in Jazz Band One, was the 2021 Jazz Librarian, and a soloist in the 2019 Panther Marching Band. She has enjoyed playing in many student-led groups, such as a Trumpet Quartet, NISO Trumpet Trio, and two Brass Quintets including the infamous Biscotti Brass Quintet for four years. Morgan has loved teaching the New Horizon Band's trumpet section for three years, and also enjoys teaching trumpet privately. She has had the honor of receiving the Robert Waller Jazz Scholarship, was a finalist for the 2021 Presser Scholar Award, as well as the 3rd place winner for the 2021 Emerging Artist Competition. Additionally, Morgan holds a position for substitute trumpet in the Waterloo Cedar Falls Symphony Orchestra. Morgan is very excited to announce she will begin student teaching in the spring at Lincoln Elementary in Waterloo and Hudson Middle School. Following this, she plans to continue to focus on performing and teaching trumpet, as well as actively playing in local ensembles as her future unfolds.

Morgan is tremendously thankful for everyone who supported her throughout her life and career so far, and to everyone who took the time to listen to her perform tonight!
