About the Northern Iowa Flute Ensemble

The Northern Iowa Flute Ensemble is a curricular flute ensemble that meets as Mus Ens 1120 Flute Choir and Master Class at the University of Northern Iowa under the direction of Dr. Hannah Porter Occeña. Comprised of students who are music majors, music minors, and from non-music disciplines on campus, the ensemble meets twice weekly. On Tuesdays, the group focuses on performance, pedagogy, and general flute skill through individual and group performances and presentations. On Thursdays, the students rehearse as a full ensemble or in duos, trios, or quartets. The ensemble was selected by audition to perform at the 2022 National Flute Association Convention in Chicago, IL.

The Northern Iowa Flute Ensemble is open to any student by audition. For more information, please contact Dr. Occeña at hannah.porter-occena@uni.edu.
