ABOUT THE WOMEN'S CHORUS

The UNI Women's Chorus, founded in 1888 by Julia Curtiss, was the first musical ensemble at the Iowa Normal School. Originally called the Cecelian Glee Club, it was the founding chorus for what would become the University of Northern Iowa, and Julia Curtiss is responsible for creating additional choral ensembles during her tenure at the Normal School, building the foundation for our current five choir choral program.

Throughout all the changes going from the Iowa Normal School, to the Iowa State Teachers College, and finally the University of Northern Iowa, the Women's Chorus has been a constant presence. To celebrate the history of the Women's Chorus is to celebrate the history of UNI, as they have been around for close to the same duration of time.

The Women's Chorus has grown from the original 16 Cecelians to a mighty force, averaging 75 women singing each semester. The vast majority of members are non-music majors and come from a variety of academic disciplines, the group is non-auditioned, and it is an inclusive community of strong, proud women. The Women's Chorus has begun to tour internationally, beginning in 2016 with a tour to Ireland, and traveling to Germany in March 2018.

The mission of artistry, friendship, and preserving the heritage of the Women's Chorus comes full circle with the 130th Anniversary celebration in 2018. We would not be here if it weren't for the work of the women that came before us, from founder Julia Curtiss and other directors to the hundreds of singers who participated. We're thrilled that you can join us for this momentous occasion, and celebrate the outstanding women, past and present, of the UNI Women's Chorus.
