In consideration of the performers and other members of the audience, please enter or leave a performance at the end of a composition. Cameras and recording equipment are not permitted. Please turn off all electronic devices, and be sure that all emergency contact cell phones and pagers are set to silent or vibrate. In the event of an emergency, please use the exit nearest to you. Please contact the usher staff if you need assistance.

This event is free to all UNI students, courtesy of the Panther Pass Program.

The University of Northern Iowa honors the ancestral stewards of the land on which our university rests. Through the work we do every day to live our mission, the University of Northern Iowa aspires for you to see a community that: honors Native and Indigenous People and culture, lives the 7th Generation Principle, does good for the people and communities we serve, and embraces stewardship of our mission and land. Please see our full stewardship statement at president.uni.edu/stewardship-statement.

Performances like this are made possible through private support from patrons like you! Please consider contributing to School of Music scholarships or guest artist programs. Call 319-273-3915 or visit www.uni.edu/music to make your gift.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

The ever-exciting duo of trombone and tuba has found a new voice in Sam & Dave's Brass Extravaganza. This low brass duo has toured and taught extensively throughout the United States, and concluded their most recent season with performances and masterclasses in Germany. Sam & Dave's Brass Extravaganza focuses on pairing acoustic music with digital media – including computerized sounds, still images, and film.

The founding members of this unique ensemble are:

Dr. Sam Keehn - trombone, who serves as the Low Brass Professor at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. She also performs with the Augustana College Faculty Brass Quintet and serves as the acting principal trombonist for the Muscatine Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. David Earll - tuba, who is the Assistant Professor of Tuba/Euphonium at Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York. He also performs with the Northern Lights Duo, The Ithaca Brass, and is the acting principal tubist with the Cayuga Chamber Orchestra.
