About the Artist

Makayla Rasmussen is a junior bassoon performance major in the studio of Dr. Ben Roidl-Ward. Throughout her time at UNI, Makayla has performed with the Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra, UNI Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and UNI Panther Marching Band. She has also performed with the Waterloo Cedar Falls Symphony and the Bradley Symphony in Illinois. Outside of ensembles, Makayla serves as the Wind Ensemble's librarian and has had the honor of being a finalist in the 2022 Emerging Artist Competition.

Previously, Makayla has studied with Cayla Bellamy, Marcia Martin, and Josh Carlo.

In her free time, she enjoys kayaking, hiking, and taking her brittany spaniel Paxton for car rides. Makayla also is an avid nap enthusiast as well as a puzzle fanatic. She is most well known for her willingness to dive into any type of pasta presented before her, perhaps a hearty lasagna.
