About the Artist

Sophia Patchin is a junior double- majoring in Bassoon Performance and Instrumental Music Education. Throughout her time at UNI, Sophia has performed with the UNI Wind Ensemble, Northern Iowa Symphony Orchestra, and the UNI Panther Marching Band. She has also appeared as a substitute with the Waterloo-Cedar Falls Symphony and served as a student section leader for the New Horizons Band.

Sophia currently works as a Peer Educator for aural training and sight-singing classes. She is an active member in Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity, and is also a member of the honors education fraternity Kappa Delta Pi.

In 2019, Sophia was selected as one of eight fellows in the Higher Education in Leadership and Ministries (HELM) program, a 4-year fellowship focusing on leadership and community service. She maintains an active private lesson studio.

Sophia is a student of Ben Roidl-Ward at UNI. Her previous teachers include Cayla Bellamy, Marcia Martin, and Jennifer Wohlenhaus-Bloomberg.
