In consideration of the performers and other members of the audience, please enter or leave a performance at the end of a composition. Cameras and recording equipment are not permitted. Please turn off all electronic devices, and be sure that all emergency contact cell phones and pagers are set to silent or vibrate. In the event of an emergency, please use the exit nearest to you. Please contact the usher staff if you need assistance.

This event is free to all UNI students, courtesy of the Panther Pass Program.

The University of Northern Iowa honors the ancestral stewards of the land on which our university rests. Through the work we do every day to live our mission, the University of Northern Iowa aspires for you to see a community that: honors Native and Indigenous People and culture, lives the 7th Generation Principle, does good for the people and communities we serve, and embraces stewardship of our mission and land. Please see our full stewardship statement at president.uni.edu/stewardship-statement.

Performances like this are made possible through private support from patrons like you! Please consider contributing to School of Music scholarships or guest artist programs. Call 319-273-3915 or visit www.uni.edu/music to make your gift.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Zach Eberle is currently a senior at the University of Northern Iowa studying music education. During his time at UNI, he has had the pleasure and opportunity to perform with a collection of ensembles including UniTuba, The Panther Marching Band, the Concert Band, the Symphonic Band, and the Wind Ensemble. This summer, he will be joining the UNI Wind Ensemble on a performance trip abroad to Central Europe.

This coming fall, he will be student teaching in the Des Moines region. He hopes to begin the journey of combining music and history in the classroom setting for students.
