Music Education MM

- Gain access to current educational trends and issues and broaden your perspectives on music education
- Explore innovative curriculum in progressive music education and music for inclusive classrooms
- Cohort delivery model – complete the program entirely online in four consecutive semesters
- Increase your earning power with an advanced degree from a reputable program

Our graduates are prepared to utilize analytical techniques and knowledge of current trends to enhance school programs, and serve in leadership roles within classrooms and school music administration.

Offered entirely online

- Courses are offered entirely online over four semesters (including summers), using Zoom video conferencing and Blackboard. The program is delivered in a cohort model, allowing you to study with the same group of peers throughout the program.
