UNI NEW HORIZONS BAND

The UNI New Horizons Band began in 1999 with 17 members and has grown to its current size of 90+ members. This band welcomes anyone around age 50 and older who is interested in taking group lessons and/or playing in a band. Our band includes beginners, those who may have previously played an instrument, who currently play an instrument, or those who might like to change instruments. The most senior members of our group are 90+ years old. Band members in the UNI New Horizons Band come from Grundy Center, LaPorte City, Waverly, Shell Rock, Janesville, Floyd, Readlyn, Sumner, Independence, Fredericksburg, Tripoli, Hudson, Denver, Charles City, Maynard, Dike, Waterloo and Cedar Falls.

The UNI New Horizons Band is directed by retired music educator, Diana Blake, and meets for 12 weeks in the fall and spring and for 8 weeks in the summer. Rehearsal takes place on Tuesday and Thursday mornings in Davis Hall and practice in the Gallagher-Bluedorn Performing Arts Center on the UNI Campus. Lessons are scheduled from 8:00-9:00 a.m. and full band rehearses from 9:00-9:50 a.m. Rehearsals are always followed by a social time of coffee, treats, and friendship. Group lessons are taught by UNI music education students.

The UNI New Horizons Band is part of the UNI Community Music School (CMS). CMS offers innovative music education experiences for area youth and adults, provides mentored teaching opportunities for UNI School of Music students, and has established community-based partnership programs that promote and utilize the many resources and facets of cultural diversity at UNI and in the Cedar Valley. CMS offers private music instruction for piano, woodwinds, brass, and percussion instruments, group piano lessons, as well as the UNI Children’s Choir, Camp Musicmania, and the UNI New Horizons Band.

GUEST PERFORMERS

Singing since the age of six, Travis Toliver has been an active musician throughout his life. Beginning as a boy soprano in the acclaimed Colorado Children’s Chorale to touring around the globe as a member of the World Youth Choir, Travis brings an exceptional amount of musical experience to the stage.

Travis attended the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and studied applied voice with Dr. Carol Kimball, singer and author. His operatic and musical theatre roles include: Don Curzio in Le Nozze di Figaro, Papageno in Die Zauberflüte, Captain Hook in Peter Pan, Johnny Casino and Teen Angel in Grease, President Franklin D. Roosevelt in Annie, the Pirate King in Pirates of Penzance, and Lt. Brannigan in Guys and Dolls. Other opera credits include: Dido and Aeneas, Don Giovanni, Gianni Schicchi, La Catarina, The Medium, and The Mikado. Travis was a chorus member with numerous symphony orchestras and under the baton of several acclaimed conductors around the world performing major works from Bach to Bernstein.

Travis currently serves as the Executive Director for the Waverly Chamber of Commerce & Main Street program and is happily married to his wife, Dr. Nicki Toliver, director and choral music educator at Wartburg College. Together, with their twin boys Carson and Tiegan, they enjoy living in Waverly, Iowa.
